

WOMAN BOOKIE SEIZED IN HER HOME FINED $90

Mrs. Florence Gambino, 59, of 7089 Caldwell av., was placed on six months' probation and fined $90 by Judge Arthur L. Dunne in Women's court for operating a gambling wireroom in her apartment. Mrs. Gambino said she handled the bets because her brother-in-law was "up to his neck in debt to juice men."

Mrs. Gambino was arrested Tuesday in her apartment. Police said she handled $15,000 a week in bets. No one else was in the apartment at the time of the raid.

Mrs. Gambino told police the whole family was trying to raise money for Joseph Gambino, former operator of Moon's Sandwich Shop, 3756 Chicago av. The place was a hangout for William [Wee Willie] Messino, syndicate juice man, and other hoodlums until its city licenses were revoked last year, police said.